Directions: Please answer the following questions about your summer reader “THE BOY WITH STRIPED PYJAMAS”. This project will be due the first Friday of school. The answers should be typed in following format:

- 1” margins
- 12-pt Times New Roman Font
- Double Spaced
- A header with your last name and page number in the upper right hand corner

You will also answer the following questions for your book report. The answers must be given in a full sentence.

I. First Reactions

A. Immediately after finishing the novel, write your reactions. Please write down your emotions, if you enjoyed the novel, if you thought it was realistic, etc. Please write at least one paragraph.

B. Try to relate the action or the outcome of the story to your own life or reading experience.

1. How did you see yourself?
2. What lesson did you learn?
3. What memories from your past that you had forgotten did this remind you of?
4. Have you ever experienced something similar to this situation?

II. Plot and other mechanics

A. Setting

1. State the time and situation, including the time period in history or the season, in a complete sentence.
2. State the actual geographic location in a complete sentence (country, planet, home, etc.). Be as specific as possible.

III. Characters

List 3 characters and include the following for each:

1. Name of the main character
2. Name of the first supporting character
 - a. State the key personality traits of each person - 2 or 3 words in a complete sentence (for example, ambitious, lonely, overprotected).
3. Continue with the same format as 1 and 2.

IV. Plot

1. Please write a three paragraph summary of the novel which will focus on the beginning, middle, and end of the novel.
2. Identify where the major climax (the most important part/turning point of the story) is, what conflict it solved, and the reactions of the people in the book to this situation.
3. Would you change the ending of the story? If so, how would change the ending? If not, why would you leave the ending the same?
